City of Memphis

Application Information

Initial participants in the Real Estate Diversity Development Certificate Program will be by invitation and advertisement. Through partnership with various agencies in the city, an initial list will be compiled of those individuals that have previously expressed interest in the various opportunities and incentives for real estate development. Immediately after this section is the participant application. There is also a curriculum fee of $375 per participant which should be made out to the City of Memphis. Forms of payment accepted are cashiers checks and money orders. The sum of the fees will be used to offset the expenses of the course including books, supplies, and seminars etc.

The application is on the following pages (p. 2-3) of this document.
